

This hamburger/ menu button where one can login / logout / register to this app.

This could be the home page of application, where passengers can select their preferred language from the list. Tap on 'Go' button to proceed.

In this page user can either login using mobile and password or can register to the application using Name, Age, Contact, Emergency contact, email address, and providing some password to it

The second is about entering the details of boarding pass or ticket number or barcode which verifies the passenger details like name, source, destination, boarding time, flight no., airline on SUBMIT

The third screen would be about verifying the details of passenger based on the ticket no. or scanning the barcode given on the boarding pass.

- Gives notification about flight status for any update.
- Notifies about food order status

The forth screen would show flight status, dining map to search for dining/restaurant/ lounge area/other stores.
- Add or View report
- One can order food at or nearby gate if needed.

